

COMMUNIQUÉ

For Immediate Release

À travers mon regard (Through my Eyes)

An Exhibit of Works by Victor Pavlov Presented by the Casino du Lac-Leamy

Gatineau, April 12, 2007 — The Casino du Lac-Leamy proudly presents À travers mon regard (Through my Eyes), an exhibition by Victor Pavlov at the Promenade du Roi, from April 18 through June 28, 2007.

Born in Bulgaria, Pavlov learned from renowned Bulgarian artists. Among other subjects, he studied drawing, portraiture, sculpture and ceramics. "I became a watercolourist almost by accident," confides Victor Pavlov. In fact, it is to his good friend, Ivan Tomanov that we owe the privilege of admiring Pavlov's work. Tomanov taught Pavlov what he learned at art school and gave him his own watercolour set.

To Victor Pavlov, "Painting is like melody to a musician or movement to a dancer. Art is a visual manifestation of emotions, inspirations, observations and ideas."

Pavlov's paintings have been acclaimed by the public. As a member of the Ottawa Watercolour Society (OWS) since 2000, he has received both the President's Choice Award and the Jury Award.

À travers mon regard (Through my Eyes), will be featured at the Casino's Promenade du Roi until June 28, 2007. The Casino du Lac-Leamy is proud to support local artists.

-30-

Information : Catherine Schellenberg ♦ Lac-Leamy Complex ♦
(819) 772-2100 ♦ www.casino-du-lac-leamy.com